CLYDE, Ohio, May 18th, 1869. EDITOR JOURNAL :- We had the pleasure of attending an entertainment, a few nights since at Kline's Hall, given by a class young Misses, under the supervision of our fellow townsman, V. Ganson. It was a rich trest, and taken all in all, was one of the in Clyde. It consisted of fancy dances, among which we noticed the May Pole Dance, and many others which for beauty. we think, is not often excelled. We were all pained by the news, Saturday of the death of our highly esteemed friend Mr. C. H. Adaws. Mr. A's health had not been good, for some years. He had form-erly taught school in Gleveland and through too close application to his school, the seeds of consumption were sown, from which he never recovered. Some two years since himself and wife went couth, to teach the freedmen, thinking thereby to benefit his health. After an absence of about a year, he returned to Clyde, with still poor health He remained here a portion of last sur and then, as his physician told him he snight possibly be benefited, by a change of climate, went to Minnesota. But nothing would reach the disease, and after a fer months of severe suffering he died. His body was brought to Clyde, for interment and the funeral was held at the Baptiss church, on last Sabbeth. Of Mr. Adams. we cannot speak to highly. He was a good some of our citizens, yet was universally beloved by all.
